SUMMARY

Illustrator and brand designer with 4+ years building illustration-led visual systems for consumer products and high-volume campaigns. At Chowdeck, I define the illustration language of the app and lead visual direction across product, digital, and physical media for campaigns with 50K to 90K order targets. Previously led a B2C-to-B2B brand refresh at Partna and turned complex health content into accessible visuals at Iddera.

EXPERIENCE

Lead Illustrator & Brand Designer, Chowdeck

Aug 2025 – Present

- Define and evolve Chowdeck's illustration language across the app, creating illustrated assets that shape the product's visual experience.
- Lead visual direction and design for seasonal and growth campaigns across illustration, product, digital, and physical media, supporting campaigns with 50K to 90K order targets.
- Black Friday 2025: Illustrated the order-tracking experience (1M+ clicks) for a campaign that hit its 50K-order target. (Sales & Strategy reporting)
- Valentine's 2026, "Your Secret Lover" (100K-order goal): Owned visual direction across the campaign website and in-app experience, including the custom vertical section, gifting flow, and checkout. Designed an illustrated tabletop that served as the entry point to four interactive experiences.
- Ramadan & Lent 2026: Led art direction, illustration, and asset development across two distinct cultural directions within a shared system of illustrated dishes and patterns, applied across social media, billboards, in-app banners, and the Ramadan Corner.
- Design banners, billboards, and store branding for partner and collaboration brands, adapting each identity within its established guidelines.
- Own physical brand execution end-to-end, from merchandise, packaging, and apparel design through production.
- Produce illustration and campaign assets across social, email, and in-app channels for frequent launches.

Brand Designer, Partna

Apr 2023 – Mar 2025

- Led the brand refresh during Partna's pivot from B2C to B2B, developing a new visual identity to support repositioning and new audience targeting.
- Designed 40+ assets across social media, website, and product interface for a consistent post-relaunch rollout.
- Built a cohesive design language for the reintroduced brand, aligned to the B2B audience's expectations and tone.
- Partnered with marketing, product, and sales teams to maintain visual alignment across all platforms and customer touchpoints.

Brand Designer and Illustrator, Iddera

Feb 2022 – Jan 2023

- Created custom illustration and design assets for the mobile app and website, supporting product experience and marketing goals.
- Designed infographics that communicated medical terminology and promoted health awareness across digital channels.
- Translated complex, sensitive health content into accessible visuals using illustration and mixed media techniques.
